Criteria for renewal of a Club Licence

1. In deciding whether to issue a licence, the Licensing Authority or the Licensing Committee concerned must have regard to the following matters:
 - (a) The object of this Act.
 - (b) The suitability of the applicant.
 - (c) Any relevant local alcohol policy.
 - (d) The days on which and the hours during which the applicant proposes to sell alcohol.
 - (e) The design and layout of any proposed premises.
 - (f) Whether the applicant is engaged in, or proposes on the premises to engage in, the sale of goods other than alcohol, low alcohol refreshments, non-alcoholic refreshments, and food, and if so, which goods.
 - (g) Whether the applicant is engaged in, or proposes on the premises to engage in, the provision of services other than those directly related to the sale of alcohol, low alcohol refreshments, non-alcoholic refreshments, and food, and if so, which services.
 - (h) Whether (in its opinion) the amenity and good order of the locality would be likely to be reduced, to more than a minor extent, by the effects of the issue of the licence.
 - (i) Whether (in its opinion) the amenity and good order of the locality are already so badly affected by the effects of the issue of existing licences that:
 - (i) They would be unlikely to be reduced further (or would be likely to be reduced further to only a minor extent) by the effects of the issue of the licence; but
 - (ii) It is nevertheless desirable not to issue any further licences.
 - (j) Whether the applicant has appropriate systems, staff, and training to comply with the law.
 - (k) Any matters dealt with in any report from the Police, an Inspector, or a Medical Officer of Health made under Section 103.

Please note:

The Invercargill District Licensing Committee places considerable importance on the Object of the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012.

- (1) The object of this Act is that—
 - (a) the sale, supply, and consumption of alcohol should be undertaken safely and responsibly; and
 - (b) the harm caused by the excessive or inappropriate consumption of alcohol should be minimised.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the harm caused by the excessive or inappropriate consumption of alcohol includes—
 - (a) any crime, damage, death, disease, disorderly behaviour, illness, or injury, directly or indirectly caused, or directly or indirectly contributed to, by the excessive or inappropriate consumption of alcohol; and
 - (b) any harm to society generally or the community, directly or indirectly caused, or directly or indirectly contributed to, by any crime, damage, death, disease, disorderly behaviour, illness, or injury of a kind described in paragraph (a).

10. Fire Evacuation Scheme (Tick (a) or (b) as appropriate)

Applications for a licence under the Sale and Supply of Alcohol Act 2012 require the licensed premises to comply with Section 75 of the Fire and Emergency New Zealand Act 2017 which legislates that all relevant buildings must provide and maintain an evacuation scheme. Among the buildings that require an evacuation scheme are those buildings for:

- The gathering together, for any purpose, of 100 or more persons
- Providing employment facilities for 10 or more persons
- Providing accommodation for more than five persons
- Storing or processing hazardous substances in quantities exceeding the prescribed minimum amounts.

Please tick one.

- (a) Fire Evacuation Scheme. The building in which the premises is situated has an evacuation scheme for public safety which meets the requirements of Section 75 of the Fire and Emergency New Zealand Act 2017, and the requirements as set out in the documentation of the approved evacuation scheme has been maintained in accordance with Section 76 of the Act.

Have you held a trial evacuation at the premises?

YES/NO

What was the last date of a trial evacuation? _____

(These must be held every six (6) months and notified to the Fire Service.)

- (b) Procedure Only. The building, by reason of its current use, is not required to provide and maintain a Fire Evacuation scheme or, because of the nature of the building, the building is exempt from having to meet the requirements to provide and maintain such a scheme. Evacuation Procedures are required to be in place with this information being readily available, such as fire action notices displayed identifying those procedures.

Note: If you do not have your procedures displayed and readily available, you may be subject to penalties under the Fire and Emergency New Zealand (Offences) Regulations 2018 which came into effect on 13 December 2018.
