INSPECTIONS, MAINTENANCE AND REPORTING (ADDRESS THOSE ITEMS THAT APPLY)

Minimum inspection and maintenance procedures:	Regular inspections and planned preventative maintenance and responsive maintenance will be carried out in accordance with the nominated standard/document to ensure continued effective operation of the system during occupation of the building.
Inspection frequency and responsibility:	Depending on the type of installation and its performance standard/document: Specifically designed solutions: by IQP only Standard /other document: Six-Monthly: by IQP only
Inspections & maintenance: six monthly inspections	As a minimum, these inspections will include the inspection and testing of: Magnetic field strength in the specified magnetic field area for the values defined in AS 60118.4 Magnetic background noise interference from other equipment, where since the last inspection, equipment has been installed, activated or altered in the proximity of the tele loop system. (Such equipment could include electrical fittings, heating systems, electrical controls or equipment, an adjacent loop system or metallic structures.) Sound amplification installations consisting of loop systems will be tested for sound pressure level and sound distortion. Where room acoustics have been altered since the last inspection, the sound amplification installation will also be tested for spectrum analysis and speech intelligibility. (Room acoustics could have been altered or affected by such things as the addition or removal of carpet, curtains or objects.)
Reporting:	The owner will keep records of all inspections, maintenance and repairs undertaken in the previous 24 months. These will be recorded in the on-site log book or electronically, which will remain available with the most recent compliance schedule, and as a minimum include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Details of any inspection, test or preventative maintenance carried out, including dates, works undertaken, faults found, remedies applied and the person who performed the work.</li> <li>• Form 12A provided annually by the IQP.</li> </ul>
