

Invercargill City Council

Electing the Mayor

Noel James PETERSON

My principal place of residence is in the Invercargill City Council area. I am also standing for Councillor - ICC.

Born in Tauranga in 1953, 6 years a Bluff and Invercargill resident, currently an elected member Bluff Community Board. Having an active interest and involvement in politics both Local and Central for 38 years I come with wisdom, experience and knowledge of good governance and government. I consider myself a person who foremost can relate and engage with all people, connecting with and supporting community groups and individuals, and come with an ability to get things done. Ready and able to proceed with the Mayoralty or as Councillor in whichever role you see me best placed.

Wide ranging employment, management, and governance history, including business, environmental, and human services, which has armed me with knowledge and experience that will enable me to provide good governance into the future.

Bipartisan political and religious views, working with all people of varied affiliations and ethnicity, with leadership, kindness, patience, conflict resolution, my strengths.
